

NATIONAL LIFELINES FORUM 2016

Wednesday 2nd and Thursday 3rd November, Wellington

Key Information

Venue:	James Cook Hotel Grand Chancellor, 147 The Terrace, Wellington
Cost:	No registration fee, funded by New Zealand Lifelines Council member organisations.
Organisations Invited:	Representatives from regional Lifelines Groups, national lifeline utilities, research agencies and others involved in infrastructure resilience planning.
Start & Finish Times:	Wednesday 2nd November: 9.30am – 5.30pm Thursday 3rd November: 9.00am – 4.00pm (A breakfast meeting of the Project Managers and Chairs of regional Lifelines Groups will be held from 7.30am – 8.45am on Thursday 3rd) A detailed programme will be circulated to those who have registered in September.
Accommodation:	Participants are to arrange their own accommodation. A special room rate at the Hotel Grand Chancellor of $210 inclusive of GST (room only, subject to availability) applies for Forum participants quoting the reference code 224310. Please contact the hotel on 04 495 0279 or groups@jamescookhotel.co.nz.
Registration & Enquiries:	Registrations are required by the end of September by email to lisa@infradecisions.co.nz

Feature Sessions

- Keynote – Showcasing Infrastructure Resilience in Practice
- Modelling the Alpine Fault Rupture
- The National Disaster Resilience Strategy – what it means for infrastructure providers
- Case studies: modelling the economic impacts of infrastructure failures
- National infrastructure vulnerability workshop
- Updates on Geospatial developments, the establishment of the Local Government Risk Agency and more

Hot Topics and Snapshot Sessions

The latest developments on:

- Learnings from recent ‘events’
- Regional lifelines group activities
- Building regulatory update for infrastructure providers
- Infrastructure Research